

Module 1	The duties of miners. - An outline of the everyday duties of mining employees and employers operating within the guidelines of the West Australian Mining Act, incorporating the concept of "As Per Mine Standard"	1.1.1 – Introduction 1.1.2 – The duties of miners 1.1.3 – The duties of employers/employees 1.1.4 – As Per Mine Standard
Module 2	How the hardrock and open cut mine works. - A view of the everyday workings of an underground hardrock minesite, incorporating the following outlined procedures.	1.2.1 – Hardrock mine orientation 1.2.2 - Ventilation 1.2.3 – Ground support 1.2.4 – Development mining 1.2.5 – Taking a cut 1.2.6 – Firing the cut 1.2.7 – The escape way 1.2.8 – Production mining 1.2.9 – Paste fill
Module 3	Jobs on a minesite - A hierarchical look at the myriad of jobs available within an underground hardrock minesite.	1.3.1 – Jobs (Professional) 1.3.2 – Jobs (Production – Hardrock Open Cut) 1.3.3 – Jobs (Production – Hardrock Underground) 1.3.4 – Jobs (Mining Construction) 1.3.5 – Jobs (Mining Shutdowns)
Module 4	Scaling - A look at the important procedure and technique used to scale in an underground Hardrock mine.	1.4.1 – What is Scaling? 1.4.2 – Scaling – the procedure 1.4.3 – Scaling – what can go wrong
Module 5	Safety onsite in a hazardous workplace - How a positive approach on safety and its implementation in a hazardous environment with the correct skill level and knowledge can prove effective.	1.5.1 – What is Safety? 1.5.2 – MYTH: All Accidents are Preventable. 1.5.3 – The Skills of the Workers 1.5.4 – Positive tips for safety
Module 6	Surviving the first 12 months onsite - A survival guide to commencing your mining career on the correct path, how to make the most of the opportunity when getting to site and understanding what is expected when getting to site.	1.6.1 – Onsite: Surviving the first 12 months 1.6.2 – Getting a start 1.6.3 – Your Resume 1.6.4 – Once you get to site 1.6.5 – The Money on Offer